DO YOU NEED SOME ADVICE ABOUT HOME COMPOSTING?
DO YOU HAVE A SPECIFIC PROBLEM OR JUST NOT SURE WHERE TO START?
THEN MAYBE A MASTER COMPOSTER CAN HELP!

HDRA Consultants, the consultancy wing of HDRA - the organic organisation, in partnership with the County and District Councils of Cambridgeshire, have recruited and trained one hundred and fifty volunteer Master Composters from across the county to provide a network of local, friendly advice and support to people who already compost and to those who want to start. Volunteers have received comprehensive training in home composting and related environmental issues, and following the training period they will spend 30 hours promoting composting in their local community.

Councils across the county have worked together to sell subsidised home compost bins to the public either through one-day events, at our household waste recycling centres and during other promotions, and over 40,000 have been sold in the last 4 years. The Master Composter programme is the next stage in the campaign to reduce the amount of waste we have to dump in landfill sites by making sure that the home composters sold are being used effectively and to encourage even more people to start composting.

If you would like advice from a Master Composter or are interested in becoming one please contact Sarah Alder, HDRA Consultants, Ryton Organic Gardens, Coventry, CV8 3LG, email: salder@hdra.org.uk, telephone 024 7630 8202.
